City Planning (II.) Bibliography

Of Material in the University of California and Oakland and Berkeley Public Libraries, Compiled by Ella K. Walker
Of the University of California Library.

This is the report of the Bibliography Committee and the work has been done under the direction of H. L. Leupp, Associate Librarian of the University of California Library, chairman of the committee. Credit is hereby acknowledged to the staff of the University of California and the Oakland and Berkeley public libraries for their assistance in the collection of the material.

EXHIBIT IN OAKLAND CITY HALL

The City Planning Exhibition, toward which the City of Berkeley gave $500.00, and for which Oakland and the other Bay Cities and the County Supervisors raised $3,000.00, will open in the new Oakland City Hall on March 13 and continue for ten days.

The Exhibit will be free to the public and the doors will be open from 11 a. m. to 10 p. m. There will be three lectures a day on City Planning and its several phases, including practically all the subjects upon which the City Club has been working or in which it is now interested.

The tentative program is as follows: March 12—Private Reception by the Mayors and the City Planning Committee; March 13—Oakland Day—Grand opening of the new City Hall and Exhibit; March 14—League of Bay County Municipalities' Convention, Special meetings of the City Attorneys' Association, Association of City Engineers, Association of City Health Officers; March 15—Church Day to be organized by the ministers, Sunday Schools, and church people; Monday, March 16—Berkeley Day; March 17—Alameda Day; March 18—Richmond Day; March 19—Piedmont Day; March 20—Unassigned; March 21—University Day; March 22—Unassigned.

The local exhibits will consist chiefly of a model of the Harbor from San Leandro to Richmond, showing the ultimate development of the proposed Rees Plan, Dr. Hegemann's Outside Park, and Alameda's proposed new parks and docks. There will also be a drawing of Berkeley's proposed civic center and street studies.

SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting of the Club members has been called for Monday evening, March 16th, at the Oakland City Hall for attendance at the Exhibit.

The next regular meeting will be March 26. Subject: "The City Manager Plan."

CITY PLANNING PROBLEMS

"City Planning Problems" will be discussed in a series of public lectures to be given at 8 p. m. on successive Tuesday evenings in 101 California Hall under the auspices of the League of the Republic, the Architectural Association, and the University Extension Division.

The remaining lectures will be as follows:

March 17—The Garden City, the Tenement, and Other Experiments in the Housing Problems, Dr. J. B. Peixotto, Assistant Professor of Social Economics.

March 24—The Development of Residence Districts under Wise Restrictions, Duncan McDuffie.

March 31—Railroad Facilities.

April 7—Playgrounds and Recreation Facilities, Outdoor and Indoor, George W. Dickie, Superintendent of the Oakland City Playgrounds.

April 14—Gardens, Public and Private, and City Planning, J. W. Gregg, Professor of Landscape Gardening and Floriculture.

April 21—Wider Uses for the Schools, John J. Donovan, Supervising Architect for the City of Oakland.

April 28—The Replanning of Small Cities, Dr. John Nolen of Cambridge, Mass., City Planner and Landscape Architect.

CITY PLANNING BIBLIOGRAPHY

This list follows in the main the plan of that compiled by the Library of Congress and the Department of Landscape Architecture of Harvard University, and published in "Special Libraries", for May, 1912. A considerable number of references to material in local libraries has been added, including periodical references of later date than April 1912; exigencies of space have compelled the omission of periodical references of earlier date, and of other material not contained in one or other of the co-operating libraries. The list accordingly makes no pretensions to completeness; it is suggestive merely. A card record of additional references may be consulted at any one of the co-operating libraries.
